The evaluation team will focus on the following sections and score your responses. There are no restrictions on the length of the applicant's responses for each Section. The Other information (Optional) section will not be scored, but will assist in the overall understanding of your situation.

Provide your personal salvation testimony.

Please share how you came to faith in Jesus Christ.

Activities involved and serving at CCC.

Express your involvement with CCC and any activities you participated. Include any ways you served at CCC. To answer this question, simply list all of your activities whether it was planning for, attending or participating in CCC events and/or activities.

How has CCC influenced you or impacted your life?

Use this opportunity to explain a significant CCC influence on you.

Why are you deserving of this scholarship?

This is another opportunity for the evaluation team to know more about you. You applied for this scholarship for a reason, so be open and honest. The evaluation team wants to see that you have a personal interest in the scholarship and that it's not just another bid for college funds. Connect how this will foster your closeness to CCC.

Provide up to three references

List up to three names and phone contacts for the purpose of verifying the applicant's connectivity to CCC.

Scholastic achievements and personal accomplishments

Describe your scholastic achievements and personal accomplishments you've reached. This allows the evaluation team to learn more about your strengths and the personal qualities or skills that make you a deserving recipient of the award. Highlighting a significant academic achievement will showcase your passion for your area of study or prospective career, and show that you take your education seriously.

List your particular skillsets, unique qualities, and interests

Particular skillsets, unique qualities, and interests are skills or strengths that distinguishes yourself from other scholarship applicants. You can also include anecdotes about your skill acquisition or discuss role models and why you admire and respect them. This criterion provides an opportunity for the evaluation team to learn more about your personality and aspirations.

What are your challenges in funding your educational endeavors?

Financial Hardship

If you are also demonstrating financial hardship, please check the FAFSA Box and include your FAFSA Report. Separate interview may be scheduled.

Other information (Optional)

This is an opportunity for the applicant to supply other relevant information for the evaluation team to consider that may not have been addressed in other sections.

To complete the Scholarship Application, the applicant must sign and date the STATEMENT OF ACCURACY.
